| We confess that we know how to keep score. We notice who got there first, who worked the hardest, and who, in our eyes, got more than they deserved. Remind us that your kingdom is not a competition. Your grace is not a wage we earn. Your love is not a prize reserved for those who arrive first. Make us people who can celebrate when others are blessed, welcome those who arrive late, forgive those who frustrate us, and extend the same grace to others that you have so freely given to us. In the name of your precious Son we pray, Amen. |                                     |          |

UNITED METHODIST

September 20, 2026

18th Sunday after Pentecost

We're so glad you've joined us today.

Whether you come from a place of peace and wholeness or from the fringe with a heart of despair and confusion,

know that you are loved and accepted

by God and his son Jesus Christ.
